

NINE KEY ISSUES

1. Public awareness,
2. Public truth
3. The future of work
4. Education
5. Data
6. Growing the AI economy
7. Weaponisation
8. Sexualization of machines
9. Leadership: who shapes the future

- (1) Artificial intelligence should be developed for the common good and benefit of humanity.
 - (2) Artificial intelligence should operate on principles of intelligibility and fairness.
 - (3) Artificial intelligence should not be used to diminish the data rights or privacy of individuals, families or communities.
 - (4) All citizens have the right to be educated to enable them to flourish mentally, emotionally and economically alongside artificial intelligence.
 - (5) The autonomous power to hurt, destroy or deceive human beings should never be vested in artificial intelligence.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE HUMAN?

“We will spend the next three decades – indeed perhaps the next century – in a permanent identity crisis, asking what humans are good for.....The greatest benefit of the arrival of artificial intelligence is that Ais will help define humanity. We need AI’s to tell us who we are”

Kevin Kelly, The Inevitable

Christ is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled

Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven
